Outcome & Beneficiaries of the Event

- 1.General awareness of cancer was poor among the Indian population; similarly, it was also poor for curability, preventability and screening methods.
  - 2.Education and place of residence (rural or urban) plays a vital role in cancer awareness. Studies are done in different periods, which may affect the awareness level of cancer as the burden of cancer is increasing.
- Totally 85 students & staff participated.

Report of the Event
The Programme was inaugurated by Dr.V.Manikandan, Principal,PSN College of Engineering and Technology and Dr.Abirami & Staff Nurse from Nellai Cancer Care Centre,Tirunelveli at 9.30 a.m.Welcome address by Dr.R.Satheesh Raja, HoD/Marine. Totally 108 students & staff participated.The Programme ended at 3:30 p.m with vote of thanks and felicitation by Mr.C.Indrakumar NSS Programme Officer.
Outcome &amp; Beneficiaries of the Event
1.General awareness of cancer was poor among the Indian population; similarly, it was also poor for curability, preventability and screening methods. 2.Education and place of residence (rural or urban) plays a vital role in cancer awareness. Studies are done in different periods, which may affect the awareness level of cancer as the burden of cancer is increasing. Totally 85 students & staff participated.
