Remarks of the Coordinator about the Event

An event of “College Pongal Festival– 2K23” has been conducted by PSN College of Engineering and Technology on 13/01/2023 @ 09.45 a.m. This event conducted by our college was more than 750 students and our faculty members participated in this programme. The welcome speech was delivered by the Principal Dr.V.Manikandan, PSNCET. Principal, PSNCET, The resource person Honorable Chairman, Dr.P.Suyambu, PSNCET, Tirunelveli.

Participants wore traditional costumes and the events began with the boiling of rice in the most traditional manner. Interacting with students on the occasion, Dr.P.Suyambu, appealed to the youth to spread the greatness of the Tamil people far and wide. Pongal Celebrations are held at PSNCET every year and it is marked with great gusto and enthusiasm. Tamilians celebrate the festival with great fervor. The sweetened rice or Pongal, prepared from jaggery is offered to the Sun God on the occasion after it is prepared in a specially decorated pot with religious fervor.

The festival is celebrated every year at PSNCET with the participation of students, faculty and management and non-teaching staff. Students from took part in the celebrations, wearing traditional clothes of Tamil Nadu.

Following this, a procession of the dignitaries, including Honorable Chairman, Dr.P.Suyambu, Dr. P.Selvakumar, Executive Director, Dr. V.Manikandan, Principal of PSNCET, HoDs and other faculty members were brought in a procession, led by artists playing traditional percussion drums of Tamil Nadu.

The procession culminated at foodys where Honorable Chairman, Dr.P.Suyambu, was given a traditional headgear. He formally inaugurated the Pongal celebrations by preparing Pongal by mixing rice, jaggery, pulses, cardamom and cashew nuts in a traditional clay pot. Later a presentation of traditional folk art and dance of Tamil Nadu including Karagaattam, Thappaattam, Devaraattam, Village Songs, Oilaattam, Kaaliaattam, Puliaattam and Poikaalkuthirai was made on the occasion along with cultural programmes by PSNCET students. At the end of the programme Pongal was distributed to everyone in the field. Principal conveyed pongal wishes to all the staff and students.
