Christmas Celebrations 2023

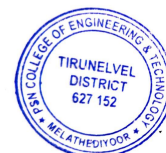

Report of the Event

22.12.2023

Venue: IT Seminar Hall

Resource Person: Dr.P.Selvakumar, Executive Director, PSNCET

The Christmas celebration at PSN College of Engineering and Technology was held on December 22, 2024, with great enthusiasm and festive spirit. The event, organized by the college's cultural committee, aimed to bring together students, faculty, and staff to commemorate the joyous occasion of Christmas. The program began with a warm welcome address by the Dr.V. Manikandan, Principal of PSN College of Engineering and Technology. The audience was greeted and introduced to the significance of celebrating Christmas as a time of sharing, love, and unity. Dr. P. Selvakumar, the Executive Director and resource person for the event, delivered an insightful address. He highlighted the importance of values such as compassion, generosity, and peace that are central to the Christmas spirit. Dr. Selvakumar also motivated students to embrace these values in their academic and personal lives. As part of the celebration, gifts were distributed to all attendees, symbolizing the act of giving and sharing during the festive season. The students performed a series of captivating cultural programs, including carol singing, skits depicting the Nativity story, and dance performances. The performances showcased the creative talents of the students and brought the spirit of Christmas alive. The organizing committee expressed their heartfelt gratitude to Dr. P. Selvakumar for his inspiring presence and to all the faculty and students who contributed to the success of the event. The celebration concluded with a vote of thanks by a student representative, followed by a cake-cutting ceremony and the entire campus resonated with joy and festive cheer.
